

I'll only go if you come with me,
A place we close our eyes to see,
A paradise for you and me,
Our souls unite and roam it free,
Where blades of grass move in the wind,
Where peace and love is a simple thing,
For anywhere with you, my joy will be
My strength and my weakness,
My motivation and my inspiration,
My biggest fan and the one I support the most,
My best friend and my lover,
GOD made us soulmates,
This I very much believe,
The love we have is beyond this earth
It must be heavenly.
