

I see you with my eyes and my world lights up, My brain tells the rest of me and starts to stir my cup,
My heartbeat alters as it is alerted of your presence, Hormones of elation are excited by your fine scent,
Most have a crush, an infatuation and write a love letter,
I write this to my dearest who is already my partner, my lover,
Your lips are perfect on mine,
And our tongues were made to intertwine,
Your beauty is best described as angelic, Your voice, laughter and your sounds to me are melodic,
The kindest heart and the purest soul,
To which mine mates and fills a hole,
So to my best friend, my lover, my soulmate,
I write this love letter, I hope you love it.
